New Vic Borderlines	05/09/15	£1000	New Vic Borderlines work with people who are deemed to be on the outskirts of society, giving them a neutral platform to be themselves. They run tailored workshops based around a variety of issues such as racism, forced marriage and bullying and create award winning drama performances which tour schools. They seek funding for a project entitled ART E FACTUAL , a documentary drama bringing alive the stories of Brampton Museum exhibits. Up to 25 people aged 13-26 from a range of difficult backgrounds will develop a number of skills including writing, devising, performing and designing a promenade performance. It will involve a tour around the New Vic, watching a current performance and a tour around Brampton Museum to see how the collections are managed and interpreted. Two performances will take place at Brampton Museum on 13 th & 14 th Feb with storytelling guides at the museum during the half term week.	£2600	£1000 (2011/12)  £1000 (2012/13)	£1300  In Kind Funding (New Vic)  £250  Keele Casic
Keele Drama Society	06/09/15	£750	Keele Drama Society has been performing both student written plays and plays written by famous playwrights. The society's aim has been to bring drama to students at Keele as well as in the local area. It has encouraged people who have never done any drama work before to write, act and work in supporting roles backstage.  Keele Drama Society is planning to take a student written play to the Edinburgh Fringe August 2016 . They are planning to work with school students by offering them positions in the production.  They plan on creating a video diary documentary and blog of the production	£4000	£750 2014 Cultural Grants	?  Grants for the Arts  Uncon

Newcastle Lanterns Supporters Group	07/09/15	£1,194.70	Newcastle Lanterns Supporters Group are a group of volunteers who put on a Lantern Parade in Newcastle under Lyme in 2013 and 2014, supported by artists from B-Arts and various local partners. They raised money to fund lantern making workshops for community groups and the wider public. These were held (over the 2 years) in various Newcastle venues (St Giles' church, Mellard's warehouse Lymestone boulevard empty shops, Keele University SU, St Mary's Catholic school and Keele University Sustainability Hub); and also Embrace at St Marks church working with women refugees. The plan is to involve as many people as possible by charging materials costs only to those who could afford it, but turning no-one away from involvement if they couldn't. They directly funded some community group activities through fundraising, and used online donations from individuals to support community engagement. They seek funding to stage the 2015 Parade entitled Hidden Treasures, which will light up Newcastle with community-built lanterns that challenge and support different groups to respond to the theme. They plan a sustained programme of public and commissioned community workshops which will allow a large number of people to take part in making art and in celebrating their community in the procession. Cultural Grant funding is specifically for providing volunteer stewards with clearly visible uniform (hats t-shirts, tabbards).
