DECLARING INTERESTS FLOWCHART – QUESTIONS TO ASK YOURSELF

is there an ite	III of pusifiess before the Authori	ty where you are present and are aware that it
<ul> <li>either yourself or you</li> <li>employment, vo</li> <li>beneficial interest</li> <li>beneficial interest</li> </ul>	our spouse/partner, ocation, trade, profession or office	able Pecuniary Interest (DPI)? These will include, for than 1/100 th ) in the Authority's area
	W. W	or
of a member of you spouse/partner?  * A person includes a	r family or a person with whom you	d be a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest but is in respect have a close association rather than yourself or your in the form of a company, a charitable, other incorporated or
(i) yourself; (ii) a member o (iii) a person* wi (iv) a person* fr estimated ve	f your family; th whom you have a close associati om whom you have in the previous alue of at least £100 as a Member (of then it would affect the majority of t	on; or selfwelve months] received a gift or hospitality with an other than when as part of their approved duties) the Council Tax payers, ratepayers or inhabitants of the self (or otherwise of the authority's administrative area)?
		↓ No
AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERT	CONTINUE TO FU	LLY PARTICIPATE
C	· (Unless you have chosen to prede speak as a another member	etermined the issue, in which case and withdraw to the gallery)
		Yes
	 	X
Do y	ou have a dispensation granted by	the authority in relation to this interest?
No	_	No ↓
		And the second s
	ERSONAL INTEREST	YOU HAVE A DISCLOSABLE PECUNIARY INTEREST
existence & nature  at interest is one who will be relevant to so significant that is limited.	iduct, you must disclose the of your personal interest ich a member of the public with t facts would reasonably regard kely to prejudice the member's the public interest?	Under the Code of Conduct, you must disclored the existence & nature of your interest Under the 2011 Act, ensure the DPI is registered judgement o	(le bapic merest:
Yes	YOU HAVE A CONFI	ICT OF INTEREST of the 2011 /	requirement of Standing Orders (Cont.)	ouncil or Cabinet Procedure Rules) and ary Interests enforceable under criminal law that ssion of, vote on, or take any executive steps
Are members of the	public allowed to make representat	ions to the meeting, give evidence or answer questions about the matter. bv statu		utory right or otherwise?
ŗ		and the second s