Essential information

This section of the document contains our guidance on what happens after the results at the May 2015 UK Parliamentary general election in Great Britain have been announced. Supplementary information, which may only be relevant to some candidates, is provided at the back of this document. You can also view this supplementary guidance by clicking on the links within this document or by clicking on the chapter heading on the contents page.

We are here to help, so please contact your local Commission team if you have any questions. See our Overview document for contact details.

In this document, we use 'you' to refer to the candidate. We use 'must' when we refer to a specific requirement. We use 'should' for items we consider to be minimum good practice, but which are not legal or regulatory requirements.

We have included relevant deadlines throughout this document, but you can also find a separate election timetable setting out all the key dates on our website.

Parliamentary oath or affirmation

1.1 The successful candidate will be given information on how they will be able to attend Parliament.

1.2 Before a person can sit and vote in the House of Commons they must take the Parliamentary oath or make an affirmation to the monarch. This is known as the swearing in and will take place at the start of the new Parliament. You can find more information on taking the oath or affirmation on the UK Parliament's website.

Return of deposit

1.3 Those candidates who received more than 5% of the total valid votes cast in the constituency will have their deposit returned by the next working day following the declaration of result.

1.4 Those candidates who have polled equal to or less than 5% of the total number of valid votes cast in the constituency will lose their deposit.

Election petitions

1.5 The outcome of a UK Parliamentary election can be challenged through an election petition. For further details on challenging an election, see paragraph 1.10.

What happens to the election paperwork after the result is announced?

1.6 In England and Wales, all election documents are held by the Electoral Registration Officer. In Scotland, they are retained by the Returning Officer.

1.7 Most documents are available for public inspection. Please note that ballot papers are not open to public inspection. If you wish to inspect election documents, see paragraph 1.18 for further information.

Submitting your election spending returns

1.8 Within 35 calendar days of the election result being declared your election agent will need to prepare and submit to the (Acting) Returning Officer an election spending return. In addition, both you and your election agent will need to sign a declaration stating that the return is complete and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief.

1.9 More information on what must be included in the return is contained in Part 3 - Spending and donations. We have also produced forms which you can use to complete your return. These forms – and accompanying detailed notes explaining how to complete and submit your return – can be found under Part 3 on our website.

Political parties contesting the UK Parliamentary election on 7 May 2015 must also report the details of their fundraising and campaign spending to us. Detailed information can be found in our guidance document for political parties.

Supplementary information

Lodging an election petition

1.10 Only certain people can lodge an election petition, and only under specific circumstances.

1.11 A UK Parliamentary election petition can be issued by:

- a person claiming to have been a candidate at the election, or
- a person claiming to have had a right to be elected or returned at the election, or
- a person who voted as an elector at the election or who had a right to vote at the election, except for an elector who is registered anonymously

1.12 The allowable grounds for a petition are that there has been an:

- undue election, or
- undue return

1.13 There is a separate judicial process for challenging the election of an MP on the grounds that they were or are disqualified under the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 (as amended). In that case, an application may be made to the Privy Council for a declaration to that effect (provided that a petition is not pending or an Order of the House of Commons to disregard the disqualification has not been made).

1.14 The Member whose election or return is complained about must be a respondent to the petition. If the petition complains about the conduct of the (Acting) Returning Officer or their staff during the election, the (Acting) Returning Officer must also be a respondent.

1.15 Normally a petition must be presented within 21 days after the date of the return of the writ (which in most cases will be the day after the election) and can be lodged at any time up to, but no later than, 12 midnight on the last day. However, if the petition complains of corrupt or illegal practices involving the payment of money or other reward, or an illegal practice relating to election spending, further time may be allowed.

1.17 There are costs attached to an election petition. If you are considering lodging an election petition, we strongly recommend that you take independent legal advice.

Inspection and supply of election-related documents

1.18 In England and Wales, documents available for supply and inspection can be provided by your Electoral Registration Officer, except for the election spending returns, which are kept by the (Acting) Returning Officer. Contact details for Electoral Registration Officers and (Acting) Returning Officers can be found on the Commission's About My Vote website www.aboutmyvote.co.uk.

1.19 In Scotland, all documents are retained by the Returning Officer. You can contact the Returning Officer through your local council.

Inspection and supply of the marked registers and absent voters' lists

1.20 The marked electoral registers and absent voters' lists show who has been issued with a ballot paper, who has returned their postal ballot paper, and who has had a proxy vote cast on their behalf.

1.21 You can inspect or obtain copies of the marked register of electors and absent voters' lists after the election if you make a request in writing. In England and Wales, the request must be made to the Electoral Registration Officer. In Scotland, the request must be made to the Returning Officer.

1.22 Note that you can only use the information obtained from these documents for research or electoral purposes.

1.23 The request for inspection must specify:

- which documents are requested
- the purposes for which the information in any document will be used
- where the request is to inspect the marked register or lists, any reason why inspecting the full register or unmarked lists would not be sufficient to achieve that purpose

- who will inspect the documents
- the date on which they wish to inspect the documents, and
- whether they would prefer to inspect the documents in a printed or data form

1.24 Inspection is under supervision and will be free of charge. You won't be able to take copies, but may make handwritten notes.

1.25 The request for supply must specify:

- which of the marked register or lists (or the relevant part of the register or lists) are requested
- whether a printed copy of the records or lists is requested or a copy in data form
- the purposes for which the marked register or lists will be used and why the supply or purchase of a copy of the full register or unmarked lists would not be sufficient to achieve that purpose

1.26 The requested document will be supplied for a fee of £10 plus £2 for printed and £1 for data versions per 1,000 entries.

1.27 Note that after 12 months these documents will be destroyed, unless a court order directs otherwise.

Inspection of other election documents

1.28 You can inspect other election documents, but you will not be allowed to make any notes or take copies of these documents. The only documents that cannot be inspected are:

- the ballot papers
- the corresponding number lists
- the certificates allowing polling station staff to vote at the polling station they are working at
- nomination papers

Nomination papers may only be inspected during the time for delivery of nomination papers, and only by candidates, their election agent, their proposer and seconder. Further details can be found in Part 2a or 2b

1.29 After 12 months all of the election documents will be destroyed, unless a court order directs otherwise.

Election spending returns

1.30 Spending returns can be inspected by any person after they have been submitted. Copies can also be made for a fee of 20p per side.

1.31 Spending returns are kept for two years. You can request to have them returned to you or your agent at the end of this period. If you or your agent does not want them back, they will be destroyed.
