

Brief for Scrutiny

Topic to be Scrutinised Proposals to encourage and enhance flexible working amongst the employees of Newcastle-under-Lyme BC (NBC)
Questions to be Addressed <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What flexible working arrangements are in place for NBC employees? 2. How have these arrangements developed and what factors have been taken into consideration in this development process? 3. How are these arrangements being implemented and what are the results of this implementation process? 4. What has been the impact on service delivery of the introduction of flexible working? 5. What benefits have resulted from introducing flexible working? 6. What further opportunities are there to introduce flexible working in more areas of the council's business? How have other organisations dealt with these issues? 7. What resource implications are there in terms of flexible working and what barriers are there to it? Can these barriers be overcome?
Outcomes <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A clear understanding of the nature of 'flexible working' – what is it and what practices and approaches are not covered by it. 2. A further understanding of the background and ongoing issues relating to the introduction and implementation of flexible working at NBC, including any issues faced in terms of developing the approach. 3. How flexible working has been used in other organisations and what opportunities are afforded to NBC through learning from others. 4. An understanding of the potential and actual benefits of flexible working, including what service areas can benefit from these approaches as opposed to the traditional office based approach to working. 5. An understanding and appreciation of the issues relating to flexible working which – when allied to an understanding of the benefits of flexible working – can offer a sound basis for challenge from Members in terms of these approaches. 6. An opportunity to put forward possible suggestions for further areas of flexible working. 7. Focus on the performance management aspects of flexible working, including how such approaches can enhance levels of performance as well as where such approaches can hamper performance. 8. An appreciation of the benefits or otherwise of flexible working on citizens and key stakeholders (including users of services). 9. Ensuring that the right policies and practices are in place to effectively support flexible working in the Council.
Background Materials <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Information from previous Cabinet and Scrutiny Committee reports on updates to the NBC Transformation Programme and also updates on

the The Way We Work (TWWW) Programme <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. Various review documents on use of flexible working in local government as well as the wider public sector (and also the private sector) such as the Department of Transport's report Smarter working and the Public Sector (June 2011) 3. Key examples from other local authorities and public sector organisations, e.g. Barnet, Enfield and Haringey Mental Health NHS Trust 4. NBC Homeworking Scheme (August 2011)
