Barbara Walton Singers	04/09/17	£955	The Barbara Walton Singers is a four part mixed choir which usually performs in the North Staffordshire Area and gives a minimum of 5 concerts a year. Their primary objective is to perform music to a high standard and attract a wide audience particularly young people by offering tickets at a greatly reduced price. They seek funding to perform a concert on 12 th November titled For the Fallen: A commemoration of 1916 in Sight and Sound . This is a follow on performance which focuses on the tragic events of the First World War and will be accompanied by WW1 footage, poetry and a narration of events by Ray Johnson.	£2105	£1050 (March 2015)	£980 ticket sales £100 programme sales Choir reserves
New Vic Theatre Trust	05/09/17	£1200	The New Vic is the producing theatre for Staffordshire. Their education and community outreach work attracts national and international interest and has helped gain a reputation as a model for the ways that theatre can be used to work with communities, marginalised and vulnerable people. This involves participatory drama, storytelling and workshops to deliver life-changing work and tackle difficult issues. They seek funding to undertake a Historical Media Project with members of the New Vic Youth Theatre (13-16) under the guidance of a media company. They aim to capture oral histories from local members of the community (150 estimated) and produce a monologue film based on people's reminiscences of the Wedgwood Institute in Burslem which currently has plans to develop into an enterprise centre. The piece will benefit local people because it is recording the history of a local site of specific historical and social interest. The finished piece will form part of an exhibition at the New Vic and be available via social media and a dedicated webpage.	£19715	£1000 2015/16 £1000 2012/13 £1000 2011/12	HLF & other not yet specified bodies.
