You must within 28 days of becoming aware of any change to the interests specified above provide written notification to the Monitoring Officer of that change.

SENSITIVE INTERESTS

An interest is sensitive if you and the Monitoring Officer agree that its disclosure could lead to you, or a person connected with you, being subject to violence or intimidation. The nature of your sensitive interest will not appear in the published Register of Interests but it may be recorded that you have a sensitive interest.

If it becomes apparent to you at a meeting of the relevant authority that you have a disclosable pecuniary interest in a matter which is to be or is being considered at the meeting that is not included on your Register of Interests then: (a) you must disclose the interest to the meeting; and (b) unless the interest is the subject of a pending notification, you must notify the Monitoring Officer of the interest within 28 days.

Section 34 of the Localism Act sets out a number of offences relating to the notification and disclosure of disclosable pecuniary interests, participating in matters in which you have a disclosable pecuniary interest and knowingly or recklessly providing false or misleading information in relation to your disclosable pecuniary interests. All of [redacted] up to £5,000 and disqualification from being a councillor for up to five years.
